PROFESSIONAL BILLIARDS PLAYER TO PUT HER BITE ON MOORESVILLE

Pool Players of all caliber will be entertained and some given the opportunity to play against one of the most lethal players of all times

Jeanette Lee The Black Widow will be putting a bite on Central Indiana pool players. The Black Widow will be casting her web at Grace Church in Mooresville just 8 miles south of 465 on State Road 67. On Saturday the 22nd of November Jeanette Lee will be appearing for 3 hours at Grace Church Auditorium starting at 6:30pm till 9:30 pm. Jeanette will be putting on an exhibition as well as giving some area players the chance to play her head to head. This is a fund raiser for Grace Church and The Boys & Girls clubs of Morgan County.

Jeanette Lee, known throughout the world as "The Black Widow," has enjoyed one of the most illustrious careers in billiards history. Repeatedly recognized by Billiards Digest as one of the sport's most powerful people, Lee has claimed more than 30 national and international titles. Formerly ranked as the #1 player in the world, she was named the "WPBA Sportsperson of the Year" in 1998 and has earned Player of the Year honors from both Billiards Digest and Pool & Billiards Magazine. In 2001, Jeanette was the Gold medalist for the United States at the World Games and has also captured Silver twice at the World Championships during her 14-year professional career. In 2004, Jeanette won the World Trick Shot Championships and BCA Open. In 2005 Jeanette won the China Invitational and more recently in 2007 won the World Team Cup, Empress Cup, and the International Skins Billiard Championship with her doubles partner and husband, George Breedlove.

Jeanette is very excited about the opportunity to share her skills with her Church and Community, and looks forward to having a successful night for The Boys & Girls Clubs of Morgan County and Grace Church.

To be a part of this Evening with The Black Widow you can get your advance tickets for only $10 dollars, Or $15 at the door. Tickets and information at www.gracemooresville.org.

A auction will be held during the event with items donated by Jeanette. Proceeds will go to benefit Grace Church and The Boys & Girls Clubs of Morgan County.
