

New England Women's 9 Ball Tour News and Results

The NEWPT hosted their third event of the season on July, 26th. We would like to thank The Fan Club in East Wareham, MA for their hospitality and generosity in hosting the New England Women's 9 Ball Tour.

We had one new player, Karen Morrow; make the drive on the rainy Sunday morning to Cape Cod. It was great to see a new face on the tour!

Now for the results:

Liz Taylor is on fire! She is unstoppable, winning her 3rd straight NEWPT event. Although this time she took the difficult route after losing her second match of the day to Bonnie Saritelli, she fought her way through the loser's bracket, defeating Jolie Brancaccio, Debra Nicoll, Nicole Netherland, Stacie Bourbeau, Norma Corneau, and Janet Tycks, to yet again reach the final match in her third consecutive tournament.

Meanwhile, Candi Rego waited patiently in the hot seat for her opponent, after defeating Stacie Bourbeau, Debra Nicoll, Linda Morton, and Janet Tycks.

In the final match of the day, Liz Taylor proved that she was not going to back down after playing eight matches to get to the finals. Liz defeated Candi Rego 9-3, in this modified final match, to become the tournament champion and remain as the current point's leader.

Congratulations Liz!

Also, congratulations to Janet Tycks for her outstanding performance and highest finish so far on the NEWPT, placing 3rd.

The next tournament for the NEWPT will be a qualifier on August 16th, at Corner Pocket in Johnston, RI. This qualifier is made possible by a donation of a cue by Cue-Tec and Imperial International. We thank them for their generous contribution.
